Feast of the Immaculate Heart of Mary

Jesus, the only-begotten Son of God, also the Son of the Most Holy Mary, chose, among all creatures, this incomparable Virgin to be His Mother.

In His infinite goodness, He then willed to give her to us as Queen, Mother, and Refuge in all the necessities of life, a nd He awaits that we love her as He loves her, that we honor her as He honors her.

He has exalted and honored His Mother above all men and all Angels, and He wants us also to have for her more love and more veneration than for all the Angels and all men together.

He is our Head, and we are His members; therefore, we must be animated by His same spirit, share His same inclinations, and continue His life on earth through the practice of the virtues He practiced.

He therefore wants our devotion to His Most Holy Mother to be a continuation of His own; that is, that we have the same sentiments of respect, submission, and love that He has for her.

The Most Holy Mary has always held the first place in the Heart of Jesus; She was and always will be the first object of His love after the Eternal Father.

Therefore, Jesus wants her to occupy, after God, the first place also in our hearts.
